IELTS Target 6.5: Preparation for IELTS Academic IELTS Target 6.5 is aimed at students entering IELTS study at intermediate level. The main focus of preparation is the IELTS Academic examination, therefore this book is ideal for those seeking to gain accreditation for university admissions or for immigration purposes. The combined IELTS Target 6.5 Course Book and Workbook teaches language competencies, rather than focusing solely on exam preparation. The course consists of three four-unit sections that take the student from an intermediate to advanced level. Each unit focuses on developing vocabulary and key language skills in all four areas - speaking, listening, reading and writing. The Workbook provides additional practice to help consolidate learning. By the end of the course, students will be working with texts and language at an advanced level. Each unit consists of five modules: 1 Speaking and Vocabulary: This prepares students for the type of interaction they can expect with the examiner in the Speaking test. The vocabulary selected is that most frequently encountered during the speaking exam. 2 Listening: This module is in two parts. The first part engages students in a topic and pre-teaches key vocabulary, before focusing on a key skill or particular IELTS exam technique. The second part practises the skill. 3 Reading: As with the Listening Module. 4 Writing: This deals with both parts of the Writing test, each unit focusing on a different writing skill or writing technique. There is a focus on guided writing, with model compositions for all writing tasks. 5 Consolidation and Exam Practice: The first part revises the speaking focus and vocabulary in the first module. The second part practises listening, reading or writing skills under exam-type conditions. The course also includes end-of-section review material. See accompanying Teacher's Book. For training that is as fun as it is effective, this is a must-have resource for anyone involved in training. Detailing the "who," "what," "when," "why" and "how" of learning, Telling Ain't Training provides everything you need to energise and engage leaders regardless of age experience. Fast-paced, fun and interactive, Telling Ain't Training incorporates principles of adult learning to separate learning myth from learning fact. Understand how people learn, what makes training successful, why training fails and how to achieve amazing training results. The 2 in 1 Tacticboard & Training Workbook for fast creation of coaching instructions/game tactics and schemes, doesn't only offer sport specific preprints (playing field and space for notes), but also a cover, usable as a dry erase panel (whiteboard pen is needed). ADVANTAGES: *** notebook with sport specific preprints (playing field) for fast and simple sketching of coaching instructions/game tactics and schemes *** If all pages of the notebook are used, the cover is still a dry erase panel (tacticboard) *** Due to a handy format, the notebook can be comfortably used in any situation (e.g. on the way or on the playing field) *** Perfect for spontaneous collection of ideas or as a memorization tool *** Practical handling due to easy pocket format It is no secret that the online learning industry is booming. But with a mass influx of course creators and marketers jumping into the 'educational gold rush' to make money, the critical components of developing quality and effective training are being lost. Anyone can create and sell online courses to a global marketplace today, at minimal expense and from their own spare rooms - which is a great thing for everyone. However, if you aspire to create transformational online or face to face training programs that engage and enrich your learners; it is vital that you design and develop your programs with the fundamental theory and principles of adult learning and course creation in mind. Training that does not satisfy your learners, or follow quality educational practices, will attract negative reviews, a bad reputation and refund requests - something that no course creator or 'edupreneur' wants to face. With the learning industry becoming a rapidly more competitive field, survival in this lucrative market is about creating remarkable training that has the learner experience at its core. This book has been especially designed by multiple-award winning, qualified education professional, Sarah Cordiner for the modern day, quality-conscious course creator, edupreneur and training manager who cares about their learner experience. It is for those who want to plan, prepare and deliver transformational training that changes the lives of those that they teach. By presenting timeless theories, principles, frameworks, processes and practices for designing, developing and delivering highly effective training programs, this book will help you create learning that will positively impact your learners - and your business. Real Estate Training Institute Pre Exam Course Workbook for Licensing Exams The 2 in 1 Tacticboard & Training Workbook for fast creation of coaching instructions/game tactics and schemes, doesn't only offer sport specific preprints (playing field and space for notes), but also a cover, usable as a dry erase panel (whiteboard pen is needed). The Anarchist Cookbook will shock, it will disturb, it will provoke. It places in historical perspective an era when "Turn on, Burn down, Blow up" are revolutionary slogans of the day. Says the author "This book... is not written for the members of fringe political groups, such as the Weatherman, or The Minutemen. Those radical groups don't need this book. They already know everything that's in here. If the real people of America, the silent majority, are going to survive, they must educate themselves. That is the purpose of this book." In what the author considers a survival guide, there is explicit information on the uses and effects of drugs, ranging from pot to heroin to peanuts. There is detailed advice concerning electronics, sabotage, and surveillance, with data on everything from bugs to scramblers. There is a comprehensive chapter on natural, non-lethal, and lethal weapons, running the gamut from cattle prods to sub-machine guns to bows and arrows. Course 130 Voice over IP, SIP, Security, 5G and IoT course workbook - Teracom Training Institute BOOT CAMP Days 4 and 5. Voice over IP, SIP, Security, 5G and IoT is a two-day vendor-independent course on "what's new and what's next" for non-Engineers. You'll get up to speed on the fundamentals of Voice over IP, the components of VoIP phone systems and what each does. We'll demystify VoIP understanding how voice is packetized, how packets move end-to-end, how the voice is re-created at the far end... and what it sounds like with packets missing. We'll cover Internet VoIP for individuals, and business VoIP phone systems: call managers, softswitches, hosted PBXs, cloud services and SIP trunking. We'll finish VoIP with carrier connections, and a "final exam". On Day 2 is a comprehensive survey of security risks and measures: phishing and extortion, network security, ports and packet filtering, firewalls, public key encryption, passwords and fingerprints, digital certificates and HTTPS, Wi-Fi security, viruses, trojans, zero-day exploits and VoIP security... in plain English. We'll get you up to date on 5G and New Radio, with its immediate benefit (40% more b/s), how it is deployed on 700 MHz, 800 MHz, 2.5 and 3.5 GHz bands, plus cool bleeding-edge ultra-broadband millimeter-wave applications. We'll finish with the Internet of Things: what the Things are, how and what they might communicate, and examples of VoIP-data convergence, IoT and 5G applications like platooning: cars in road trains on the Interstate, ultra low-power tracking, Smart Cities and more. This is the exact course workbook used in Teracom instructor-led training. It is in a fixed 8.5 x 11" format. The eBook is the same 8.5 x 11" pages, not reflowable to fit small screens. Singing and Teaching Singing: A Holistic Approach to Classical Voice, Third Edition continues to be a beloved resource for singers and their teachers, speech-language pathologists, and laryngologists and an adopted text for instructors and students in voice, singing, and performing arts courses. Janice L. Chapman is able to draw on her experiences as a singer with some of the world's leading opera companies to present a teaching technique specifically focusing on voice in the areas of classical and opera singing. Interspersed with the concepts and components of Chapman's methods are vignettes from her life and career, animated by her conversational and vibrant style to guide (and entertain) the reader through the book in a step-by-step fashion. The philosophy of teaching presented combines three main facets: Holistic, Physiological, and Incremental. The Holistic segment emphasizes that the act of singing involves the whole person (i.e., body, mind, spirit, emotion, and voice); the Physiological segment stresses anatomy, muscular function, and effects of muscular interactions so that students and teachers alike can understand and visualize the functional workings of the torso, larynx, and the vocal tract and their impact on good singing practices; and the Incremental section shows that the act of singing can be broken down into manageable components that have a natural hierarchy that eventually interact and interlock. This teaching model provides a framework to master one element at a time, with the resulting effect of a complete and integrated mastery of technique. Chapman recommends this framework for rehabilitative work with the dysfunctional singer, for working with the developing singer, and for the ongoing development and maintenance of the technically able professional singer. Case studies, examples, exercises, and contributions from some of the world's best-known voice professionals further highlight the text. New to this edition: The addition of a completely new chapter: an interview with voice specialist osteopath Jacob Lieberman on the subject of manual therapy and voice. A rewriting of Marilyn McCarthy's chapters on teaching and learning in light of advances in the fields of neuroscience and education. Updates to Pamela Davis's chapter on voice and the brain, as well as John Rubin's chapter on vocal and respiratory anatomy and physiology. Clarifications by Ron Morris on the use of the accent method of breathing as a highly effective remedial and training technique. Refinements to chapters on breathing and support, phonation, and resonance. The Discover Ohana Workbook is designed to accompany the Discover Ohana course. It is commercially available so that participants in and graduates of the course may purchase an extra copy, a replacement copy, or a fresh copy for reviewing the material and doing an updated journal after graduation. Those who have enrolled in the course should have received one copy of The Discover Ohana Workbook with the course materials. It is not intended for general use for readers of The Ohana Way if you are not also enrolled in the Discover Ohana course. There are hundreds of books about sales, but how many of them have actually helped anyone become a better salesperson? Hal Becker's Ultimate Sales Book is a sales book and sales training course rolled into one, written by Xerox's former number-one U.S. salesperson and one of America's top sales trainers. It contains a wealth of practical information that many seasoned salespeople have forgotten...and which new salespeople need to master. It includes action steps to help you develop unique and proven selling methods, set goals, list prospects, and even discover your own ways to answer objections. Plus targeted quizzes at the end of each chapter to hone your skills. This is truly the one sales book every salesperson needs. L.E.T. has changed countless corporations and private businesses-including many Fortune 500 companies-with its down-to-earth communication and conflict resolution skills. Now, this indispensable source has been newly revised with updated research and timely case studies. I was hired by a major university to teach recently released offenders how to become employed. I walked into my first class intending to follow the lead of all the other job training programs in the city, which was teaching the students to properly fill out applications, write resumes, facilitate mock interviews, and locate employment opportunities. After the first couple of classes, most of the students were either not paying attention or sleeping. I quickly realized my presentation needed to be interesting, challenging, beneficial, and actually guide the participants on how to remain employed. However, I was unable to find any published material for teaching new hires the soft skills necessary to keep a job. This workbook is a compilation of the soft skills class material I have developed over an eighteen year period. I have used this material with great success and have taught soft skills in schools, inner-city church programs, nonprofits, and government funded job training programs. It is a unique collection of essays, exercises, quotes, and maxims that will give students a realistic perspective on work-related expectations and the expectations of the supervisors who hire them. It will help students develop their problem solving skills, guide them in making appropriate decisions, and create a desire to plan out goals and achieve them. The workbook style is challenging and playful, serious and engaging and a stepping stone to developing the cognitive skills necessary to quash unproductive thinking and self-defeating emotional behaviors. This book provides all the task material from 'A Course in Language Teaching'.
