Do you want to be able to make those on your own but think that you have very little baking ability or that you're not that artistic? Fret no more! This guide can definitely help you bake and decorate cupcakes that you can serve to your guests during your five-year-old's birthday party or give as a gift at your best friend's 30th birthday celebration. - Learn some basic cupcake recipes (if you don't have one of your own) - Learn how to use ordinary stickers or decorative paper in adorning cupcakes - Learn how to make buttercream frosting and use them together with sprinkles or edible confetti in decorating cupcakes - Learn how to make fondant and assemble fondant characters to sit on top of your delicious cupcakes - Learn how to come up with a specially home-baked present for family and friends that will bring sheer delight to the recipient and his guests - Use what you've learned to start your own home-based cupcake business! What else are you waiting for? Grab this guide now and start making cupcakes for your family and friends during their birthdays or start your own cupcake business! About the Expert Khyria Cepe used to think that baking was hard, but upon the prodding of one of her close friends who later became her business partner in their cupcake business, she tried to learn how to bake. She bought cookbooks and tried to follow them and was dismayed at her initial failures. However, the number of flopped recipes did not decrease her drive but instead fueled her determination to learn the art of baking. After several soggy cupcakes, with the inspiration of the popular TV shows Ace of Cakes and DC Cupcakes, she began to increase her baking skills until she eventually had the courage to start her cupcake store Sugar and Spice (and everything nice) in her hometown in the Philippines. She enjoys baking because it is a practical craft to learn, and it allows her to exercise her creativity and stretch the limits of her imagination. HowExpert publishes quick 'how to' guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts.

Cake Fakery: How to Decorate Without Really Decorating! May 19 2021 From the Introduction: I wanted to find ways to make cakes at home that didn't involve a lot of piping or professional techniques. So rather than pipe borders, I would fake them with candy or other things. I realized I could make some nice cakes without a lot of special tools. I also wanted to do it without creating a huge mess to clean up afterwards. With a combination of short cuts and tricks, I feel like I came up with some great ideas. I love to serve a cake that fakes people into thinking I'm a more experienced decorator than I really am! I challenged myself to come up with as many ideas as I could for decorating that did not require special tools or techniques. Most of the ideas I came up with are so simple a child could follow the directions and create a beautiful cake. I knew there are plenty of home bakers out there that could use some of these tips. The title for this book, "Cake Fakery," comes from my feeling that I was cheating, faking certain parts of the cake, like using candy or cookies or ribbon for the border, and adding texture to the cakes to hide my sloppy icing jobs. There's no crime in tricking your guests into thinking it took you longer than it really did to make your cake, especially if it saves time, money and clean up! I hope these ideas will be helpful to you.

How to Decorate and Furnish Your Home - 91 Great Furnishing, Interior Design and Home Decorating Ideas Aug 22 2021 You can't wait to get started on your home decorating project, but taking a few minutes beforehand can save you time, money, and aggravation down the road. Looking to freshen up your home decor or decorate for the season? read this book to get dozens of great home decorating ideas, easy to implement furnishing tips, and inspirations. Whether you want to beautify the bathroom or liven up the living room, you'll find here designer decorating tips to help you renovate any room in your home. Here's just a small sample of the tips included: A mural-pattern wallpaper makes a small room appear larger. No shelf space in your office? Hang slatted boxes for storage of scissors, envelopes, even a cassette recorder. Drape a shade-loving ivy in the topmost box. If you have an Indian print bedspread that you don't use, hang it full-width across a window. Open it diagonally across half the window and secure it with a tieback. For a quick, easy, and inexpensive way to recover a chair, drape a twin-size sheet over the chair, and tie or pin the corners to fit. Use mix-and-match wallpapers to simplify the problem of papering adjoining rooms without visual clashes. A pretty or unusual blanket can substitute for a table cloth. Mexican serapes and Indian bedspreads make colorful, inexpensive table cloths-great for picnics) too. Fasten bright and colorful paper shopping bags to the wall for storage of art supplies and other lightweight items. To make a high ceiling seem lower paper it with a bold pattern. To make a low ceiling seem higher) paper it with a small print or a texture. To brighten up the office) put pencils and pens in a flowerpot and use a music stand for a magazine rack. You'll never have trouble tightening screws and bolts if you remember that) for most) right is tight and left is loose. A basketful of pinecones in front of the fireplace gives a room a feeling of friendliness. In the fall, buy gourds at the supermarket. Use them for a month or so in an arrangement, then put them somewhere warm and dry for a while. The gourds become very light as they dry) and the colors mute beautifully with age. Add a miniature hammock to a corner in a child's room to make a place for all his or her stuffed animals. Keep your decorative baskets looking healthy by placing them away from dry heat. A nonworking fireplace, primed and freshened with paint, makes a comfortable niche for a sewing machine table or an aquarium. A stairway landing is the perfect place for an armoire. Line it with attractive fabric and fill it with linens, coats, or out-of-season clothes. Display flowers in unusual vases-a crystal ice bucket, a fluted champagne glass, a bright coffee mug or jug. Flowers, in fact, look good in almost any container. Turn your bathroom into a miniature gallery with pictures you don't have space for elsewhere-so long as they aren't works that can be damaged by the humidity that collects in a bathroom. If you don't want to buy furniture, you can rent it at surprisingly reasonable rates. Furniture for rent includes everything from sofas and carpets to lamps and works of art. A silver goblet is perfect for holding candies or cigarettes on a coffee table. To keep drying flowers dust-free, cover them with plastic bags punched with air holes. When the flowers have dried, spray them with hair spray.

Inspire Your Home Mar 05 2020 Instagram star and founder of Inspire Me! Home Décor shares her creative and elegant interior design secrets so you can create a glamorous yet cozy home without spending a fortune. Farah Merhi launched Inspire Me! Home Decor in 2012 as a creative outlet during a transitional time in her life. Farah was about to graduate college and planned to attend law school. Going through the motions and feeling unfulfilled in her career choice, she built up the courage to face her truth. Taking time off to figure herself out, Farah, through a remodel project in her home, had her “ah-ha” moment. The importance of taking care of your home, specifically in the way you clean, organize, and design, was instilled in her at a young age, but she didn’t realize how much of an impact her upbringing had until she owned her own home. Farah knew she had found her passion and calling, and was determined to inspire home owners to live their best lives in their homes. Farah believes that taking care of your home is essential to your peace of mind. Her design style is elegant and glamorous but infused with warmth and coziness, creating a welcoming feel with neutral color palettes, soft and inviting fabrics, and exquisite design details that can work in any room. She believes you can make a statement without sacrificing an inviting feel to your rooms. There is no right and wrong when it comes to designing your home and Farah encourages you to focus on the overall look and feel you desire, and her tips and advice will help guide you through the process. Starting with her most frequently asked questions about paint color versus wallpaper, lighting and rugs, home organization, and of course styling, Farah walks you through every room in the house from the mudroom to the kitchen and kids’ bedrooms. Along the way, she includes quick seasonal updates on a budget, suggested routines for maintaining your space, and her unique reward system, which includes small styling vignettes around your home. Woven throughout are Farah’s personal stories that will feel like you’re getting design advice from a close friend. Everyone deserves to walk into a beautifully decorated home every day—now you can, with the inspiration and practical tips in Inspire Your Home.

How to Decorate Dec 06 2022 If you dream of decorating (or redecorating) your home but have no idea where to begin, this decorating workshop-in-a-book decodes an interior designer's thought process on creating a stylish home with vision and flow. The secret to those gorgeous interiors in the magazines lies not in the things that fill the rooms, but in the "decorating story" or point of view that the designer has applied to the space. With How to Decorate, learn how to create your own design concept and implement it with color, furniture, fabrics, lighting, accessorizing, and styling. This book also helps solve a decorator’s biggest challenges, from working around a home's existing architecture and organizing a space, to mixing patterns and editing collections. Best of all, 150 color photographs and charming watercolor illustrations—and even a bookplate for personalizing this guide—provide inspiration that makes this book as useful as it is beautiful. Among the insider tips is information on: -Finding a dedicated space where you can organize paint samples, fabric swatches, and magazine clippings - Choosing a sofa wisely -Determining appropriate wall finishes and textures -Identifying what fabrics are right for you -Styling your decor to reinvigorate your space -Plus, the best suppliers for rugs, linens, accessories, and more "Interior design should be about telling a personal story, and Shannon Fricke has nailed it on the head with How to Decorate. Her genius tips ring true for novice and professional decorators alike, and her decorating workshop-in-a-book organization helps simplify what can be a very intimidating process. This book will empower and motivate you to tell your personal story through your home decor. Bravo, Shannon!" --Jenny Komenda, designer and founder of Little Green Notebook "How to Decorate throws out stuffy notions of doing things the 'right' way and instead invites us to imagine our homes as playgrounds for authentic self-expression. Fricke promotes the idea of decorating at its best, as a means of creating surroundings that reflect who we really are and what we love . . . while having a blast in the process!" --Camille Styles, event designer and editor of CamilleStyles.com "Shannon strikes the elusive balance between visual inspiration and practicable action. This is a book you'll both display and put to constant use." --Anne Sage, blogger and founder of The City Sage

The Alchemy of Things Nov 12 2020 If you have read The House that Pinterest Built, Smart Spaces, Iconic Australian Houses, or Elements of Style, you're going to love Karen McCartney's new book The Alchemy of Things. Karen McCartney's eighteen most fascinating homes in the world: The Alchemy of Things invites you into the homes and minds of eighteen fascinating UK, Australian, US and European creatives selected by esteemed interior design editor and author, Karen McCartney. These artists, interior designers, architects, collectors, gallerists, stylists, furniture designers and vintage retailers take you on an eccentric, whimsical, curated and clever tour of their interior design and home decor, and the philosophies behind their creations. An esteemed interior design editor and author: Author Karen McCartney is best known for her work in the world of interiors, architecture and design across print and digital media. She edited Marie Claire Lifestyle and was the founding editor of Inside Out magazine before becoming Editorial Director (Lifestyle) at News Corp Australia. Karen is the author of eight architecture and interior design books including the bestselling 50/60/70 Iconic Australian Houses, 70/80/90 Iconic Australian Houses and more recently, Perfect Imperfect: The beauty of accident, age & patina. According to Karen, the idea for The Alchemy of Things arose out of her previous book, Perfect Imperfect, where some of the content revolved around remarkable people with quite extreme interiors - people such as Martyn Thompson in New York and Nectar Efkarpidis in Canberra. Enjoy the visual splendour of The Alchemy of Things: - Tap into architectural energy that defies trend - Visit remarkable homes that have never been seen before - Change your perspective and think out of the interior design box

Free Decorating Aug 10 2020 How to Decorate For Less and Eventually For Free You think, "I don't have enough money" or "I can't afford a room like that." You want to create a comfortable, beautiful home, but you don't believe it's within your reach. The truth is decorating is expensive and frustrating when you: Try to keep up with the latest trends. Buy home decor you don't love (even if you get amazing deals). Feel the need to replace your decor every season or even every few years. Imagine not feeling rushed to finish your home. Imagine enjoying your home in progress. With a different approach to decorating you can: Surround yourself with decor you love (no matter your budget). Find things you want to keep and never want to replace. Save money by passing on "disposable decor" and confidently buy decor you'll enjoy for years to come. This approach isn't about penny-pinching, finding cheap deals, or dumpster diving (unless that's what you're into). Free Decorating is a strategy to 1) Free yourself from the tug to constantly replace and redo your spaces, and 2) Build a decor collection that allows you to reuse and re-decorate without spending money. It's time to shop smarter, save your money, and most importantly, love your home decor (well past the return date on the receipt). Discover How to Find Home Decor with Staying Power Picture this: A piece you love so much that your toughest decision is where to display it in your home because it would look great in any room. Now imagine if all your decor was like that. This book will show you how to get there. You'll learn how to: Stop over-spending on the wrong things you inevitably regret later. Declutter your decor to showcase the pieces you love and replace the ones you don't. Shop strategically for home decor that will stand the test of time. Strengthen your collection with decor that can be mixed and matched all over your home. Renew any room without an expensive shopping trip. Free Decorating is a strategy that could save you tens of thousands of dollars over the life of your home. It's based on the principle that if you bring the right things into your home to begin with, you'll love your decor for years to come and won't have to spend time and money to replace it later. Free Decorating will: Boost your buying confidence by showing you how to identify home decor you love. Triple the life of your home decor with the collection building guidelines, pre-purchase test, and restyling plan. Increase the time you spend enjoying your home rather than shopping for it. Can you afford to keep buying (and replacing) the wrong things for your home? Or are you ready to find the decor with staying power? Start Free Decorating now.
