Are there some things that you wished others would discuss? Many times I have gone into the bookstore and have hoped that I would find a book that dealt with some of the tough things in life. I would find a few topics in a book, but many topics were not being discussed. One day while I was at work one of my co-workers told me that she was writing a book about poems. I got so excited for her, but at the same time God began to stir up some things within me. He reminded me about the Spiritual Highlights that He had given me. The next time I saw my co-worker I told her about the Highlights and she encouraged me to get them published. Spiritual Highlights for Our Souls is a book written for the unsaved and saved. It is a book that does not make you feel that you are unworthy of God's love, but it makes you feel that His love is unconditional for you. The Highlights covers many topics that most people think about, but chooses not to discuss. Some of the Highlights will make you cry, some will make you laugh and all of them will inspire you to tell Satan enough is enough. Employing as symbols the cruciform cathedral and Celtic cross, this book casts a vision for the cruciform life, living as disciples of Jesus who are being shaped by the cross (gospel) into people and churches who share and show the cross (gospel) as they live the vertical life of loving God and the horizontal life of loving people through Christ. The Exaltation of Christ is a message of meditation based on the Bible and written by one of the most important Christian writers of all time. A devotional message of faith and hope for you. Charles Haddon (CH) Spurgeon, 19 June 1834 - 31 January 1892) was a British Particular Baptist preacher. Spurgeon remains highly influential among Christians of various denominations, among whom he is known as the "Prince of Preachers". He was a strong figure in the Reformed Baptist, defending the Church in agreement with the 1689 London Baptist Confession of Faith understanding, and opposing the liberal and pragmatic theological tendencies in the Church of his day. It is estimated that in his lifetime, Spurgeon preached to around 10,000,000 people, Spurgeon was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel (later the Metropolitan Tabernacle) in London for 38 years. He was part of several controversies with the Baptist Union of Great Britain and later had to leave the denomination. In 1867, he started a charity organisation which is now called Spurgeon's and works globally. He also founded Spurgeon's College, which was named after him posthumously. Spurgeon was a prolific author of many types of works including sermons, an autobiography, commentaries, books on prayer, devotionals, magazines, poetry, hymns and more. Many sermons were transcribed as he spoke and were translated into many languages during his lifetime. Spurgeon produced powerful sermons of penetrating thought and precise exposition. His oratory skills held his listeners spellbound in the Metropolitan Tabernacle and many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature. This issue of The Ministry of the Word contains the six messages from the Memorial Day weekend conference held in Seattle, Washington, May 24 through 27, 2019. The subject of this series of messages is "The Experience of Christ." The key statements in the following section embody the crucial truths and the main burden of the conference. The Announcements section at the end of this issue contains a list of upcoming conferences and trainings hosted by Living Stream Ministry and a website link for information related to similar events in Europe. 'This powerful book portrays God's intense desire to restore glory on earth. Man lost God's glory, walking away from the Creator. God, having perfected atonement, goes after man, viewing mankind like they had never sinned. He equips man to regain lost glory by His Spirit and Word, through Christ-like living. A stirring sense of purpose runs right through all twenty two chapters, although a wide spectrum of practical issues are addressed. Fresh revelation on timeless truths, deeply probed and delightfully portrayed, inspire families to realign and nations to reform. This sensational book makes a clarion call on all citizens everywhere to fulfill their mandate to flood their nation with the Creator's glory. The final pages are a saga of love for homeland, kindling a passion deep inside, to exalt its honour by a life of righteousness. A refreshing revelation of true patriotism, this timely book is a road map for all patriots, toward building a society and nation in oneness, without ripping it apart in religious fanaticism. "The truth herein is a fresh breath to timeless revelation from the heart of the Father. It is a must have for every marriage and home, in these days of hectic activities and heavy commitments". Rev. Sam T Varghese, General Overseer, Apostolic Churches Alliance "Rev. Thomas and Rachel have taken the high road, living out what they believe, modelling their lives to a generation looking for the real deal. He is a father for fathers and pastor for pastors and has mended many broken lives and ministries. His understanding on God's gift of righteousness is clear, powerful, grace-filled and balanced with the holiness of God. While many talk about grace, Rev. Thomas is one of the few who has preached grace with his life. This is a long-awaited book toward true understanding of God's heart and the power of His righteousness". Dr. John Joseph, MBBS, E.MBA, Founding Minister, World Impact Community Church, Trivandrum, India "I am very impressed with the insights in this book, especially distinction between love and lust, the need for godly role models in fathers and the challenge to "dare to father", the "Jacob Generation", and teachings on being "raised up and sent, not rose up and went." Barbara M. Kohl, Barbara Kohl Ministries, Canada "God wants us to experience His Glory now on earth. We may seek it within the four walls of churches. This book inspires us to seek its expression everywhere. With great wisdom and insight, Rev. Thomas P Thomas reveals how Godly order in homes and personal lives, and little acts of honour and love for others become the pathway to the Church exploding in glory. This book is a catalyst for transformation." Diane Carroll, Freedom Encounters, NJ, USA A 40 Day devotional to encourage and inspire you to spend that time seeking God in and throughout your day. It only takes a minute to get started... We live in a society today that is filled with compromising and perverse lifestyles, pursuit and worship of all sorts of idolatry, fake gods and slanderous vulgarity. As a child of God and follower of Christ, maintaining a faithful lifestyle in the midst of all this worldly garbage can be a real challenge, even a struggle, as we are met with everyday trials and tests. As we look past the obvious good times of our prosperity, we come to the irony that some of our most joy filled moments have come out of our most difficult experiences. It is in these times, these last days, that our faith must be evident, as we bless the Lord and all those around us by the example of our conduct, the word of our testimony and our chosen life committed to living in agreement with and submission to Christ. His goodness is always worthy of praise and forever a reason for us to...REJOICE!

Exalting Jesus in Genesis is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this commentary series, to include 47 volumes when complete, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books. Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy reading, practical and friendly commentary. The authors of Exalting Jesus in Genesis are Dr. Russell Moore and Dr. Phillip Bethancourt. The Exalted Horn challenges people to take a seat at the feet of the Holy Spirit, humble themselves before the Lord and hear His voice. As children of the Most High God, we should claim our inheritance and walk in the authority that He has given to us so that our horn(strength) may be exalted in Him. When our horn is exalted in the Lord, we lead victorious lives because we rejoice in His salvation. It is very easy to stray from the Word of God and disregard Him because of the depth of our daily struggles. But, if we are willing, we can know Him as Abba Father through the help of the Holy Spirit. The author shares in this book some lessons learned at the feet of the Holy Spirit by surrendering and believing such as "Wealth", "The Lust of the Eye", "Procrastination", "Sickness: Whose portion?", "The Ministry of Suffering", "Walking and Stumbling in God's House", "God's way or My Way", "The Power of Praise" and many more. She urges you to read, understand and "Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at His footstool--He is holy (Psalm 99:5). Each chapter ends with prayers to aid the reader in making direct supplications to God. There are parts of the Bible that I have struggled with, and bits that seemed far removed from my life as a twenty-first-century woman. I have wrestled with them, but as I read, I came to know that God offers more liberation, more freedom, and more fulfilment than I could dare to imagine. Equality for all people is a foundational principle in our culture and embedded in our law. The consensus is clear: all people are equally valuable. However, religion is seen as a stronghold that promotes inequality. There is a widespread belief that the Bible is sexist. Women fear that God does not want their good and instead, he wants to box them in and clip their wings. Our culture believes that they need to forget religion to achieve equality. This, however, is not the case. The principle of equality is established in the first pages of the Bible, and its message exalts and dignifies both men and women. Bible teacher, conference speaker and author Karen Soole shares what she has discovered as she has read the Bible and grappled with it over many years. She takes us through the Bible story from Genesis to Revelation and challenges the reader to decide whether God is offering life and liberation, or suffocation and oppression. It is an invitation to meet and know the God of the Bible, and to view his Word through the lens of his character. Chapter titles include Thirsty Made in God's Image: Genesis 1 Made for Relationship: Genesis 2 Messing up the Design: Genesis 3 The Fallout How the Story Unfolds From Bad to Worse Worrying Laws Wisdom for All The Broken Bride The Wife Liberation

Although this book is about women, it is not 'only for women'. These things matter to everyone. This book was written for men and women, although it addresses concerns that women face in particular. These concerns are relevant to everyone. The name Jesus identified the Son of God as a man. It was a common Jewish name meaning savior or deliverer. Jesus grew up perceived as a member of the local community. It was his baptism at age 30 that marked his anointing and attaining the title of "Christ," now "the anointed one," "the one sent from God." The name Christ distinguished him from all others named Jesus. It identified him as the Son of God. Jesus Christ combined the "Son of God" and the "son of man." Jesus chose to be the "son of man," so he might redeem lost mankind, restoring it to the status of his creation, "sons of God." In the name Jesus Christ is enshrined immortal glory, as well as the omnipotence and omniscience of God the Father. The common name Jesus is elevated above all other names to be expressive of the divine characteristics of "the Christ, the Son of God." Jesus, "the son of man," elevates mankind to the status of Christians, "the sons of God." This book presents a challenge to Christians to rise above the limitations of our fallen humanity, to grasp the unlimited potentials embodied in the name "Christ-ian," and to be like Jesus Christ. We must follow Christ's example in daily living, internalizing and practicing the precepts he taught, and get intimate with him through prayer. We are expected by God to fulfil the mission and destiny of Christians. When we succeed, all our differences will give way to Christ's likeness, and the unity (oneness) for which Jesus prayed in John 17:17. Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting, biblical truths and has been called a "soul-stirring celebration of the pleasures of knowing God." Christians usually focus on what Jesus has done (his life, death and resurrection) and what he will do (his second coming and reign). However, Christ is the one who not only lived, died, rose, and will come again: he is also currently seated at God's right hand. In this NSBT volume, Peter Orr explores the New Testament witness to Jesus as he is now, the exalted Christ, through the lenses of his identity, his location, and his activity. Exalt Him! His Name is Jesus! is a collection of thoughtful poetry that will move you, encourage you, and inspire you, deepening your faith, renewing your joy, and moving your heart to praise His name. "This is a must-read. From beginning to end, Exalt Him! His Name is Jesus! by Reverend Zaziiz S. L. Dinkins, is an inspiring book of poetry that powerfully urges the reader to do just that--exalt Him. Each poem is an invitation to the reader to praise the Lord, because He alone is worthy." --Rev. Dr. John E. Douglas, Pastor, Antioch Baptist Church, North Hills, PA A Study Guide and a Teacher's Manual Gospel Principles was written both as a personal study guide and as a teacher's manual. As you study it, seeking the Spirit of the Lord, you can grow in your understanding and testimony of God the Father, Jesus Christ and His Atonement, and the Restoration of the gospel. You can find answers to life's questions, gain an assurance of your purpose and self-worth, and face personal and family challenges with faith. The anniversary each year of the Ascension of Christ was greatly welcomed by slaves in Christian households in the early church - they were given the day off! Thus the early church marked the importance of that great event, which is often ignored in the modern church. Yet, if Jesus had not consummated his resurrection by ascending back to the Father's right hand, to resume his seat upon the throne, there would be no church at all, either modern or ancient! So important is the ascension. Yet even more important is the task that the ascended Christ at once assumed, that of making continual intercession before the Father on behalf of the church, acting as our High Priest for ever. But the ascension and high priestly ministry of Christ are more than just a pretty doctrine. Both ideas have vital ramifications in the daily life of each Christian, and it is tragic that so few Christians are truly aware of them. Yet to live consciously within the framework of the ascension of Christ and of his perpetual intercession, is to gain immense spiritual wealth. This book is an attempt to assist readers to grasp the significance of this heavenly ministry of the risen and ascended Christ, and to apply these powerful ideas to daily life. The book also provides a commentary on the middle chapters of the Letter to the Hebrews. Other parts of Hebrews are discussed in the author's book Royal Priesthood. This series affirms that the Bible is a Christ-centered book, containing a unified story of redemptive history of which Jesus is the hero. It's presented as sermons, divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy-reading, practical and friendly commentary. The series is projected to be 48 volumes.

War! Rumors of War! It's the announcement that has become the norm in today's date. Things are going from bad to worse. Fear, Hopelessness, insecurity, and terror are the talk of the town. The atmosphere around makes us aware of the Spiritual Battles at hand. Destined to Prevail is designed to instruct, impart, and invade as a commando in the army of God. Get ready as you receive instructions of Wisdom and Knowledge in God's Word and understanding through the Holy Spirit in the weapons, tactics, and strategies of Spiritual Warfare. Get ready for an impartation of Grace and Anointing to live victoriously. You are not to live in defeat. You are not only to be defensive, but offensive to go and Invade the domains of darkness along your path to fulfilling God's purpose for your life. Your destiny is set by your commander in chief, the Lord Jesus Christ! Nicky S. Raiborde, is known for relevance, simplicity, and commitment to teach the uncompromised Word of God, to empower and release people in the work of the ministry, and to see lives transformed by the presence of Jesus as the Holy Spirit partners to demonstrate the kingdom of God through signs, wonders, healings and miracles. Being raised up in a pastoral home, his parent's spiritual instruction and impartation helped him answer the call of God at the age of 17, with a dream to carry the Gospel to the nations. By the age of 21, God sent him to over 36 countries preaching the Gospel of faith, hope, and love. Pastor Nicky lives in Lexington, SC, USA where he is thrilled to devote his life to serving Jesus at International Family Church, a multicultural church that loves to exalt the Lord, equip the believers, and extend the kingdom of God. How does the Holy Spirit indwell the believer, and why should one seek that experience? In this collection of articles based on over twenty years' personal experience as well as academic study, the author, an ordained minister and seminary graduate, relates Spirit Baptism and spiritual gifts to their source, the exalted Jesus Christ. He describes this Exaltation of Christ and constructs a theory of how the Holy Spirit indwells the believer, drawing from psychology and medical science as well as Scripture. Finally, he proposes a new Theology of Exaltation that sees the whole sweep of church history as the ongoing glorification of Christ and Redemption of the world. It is inspiring to learn how a "chosen vessel" became so definitely "sanctified and meet for the master's use."- Travel with him down the path of the precious Page and you will find him in step with the Saviour.- Sit under his persuasive preaching and you will know he declared the full counsel of God.- Join with him in heavenly sweet communion and you will sense his nearness to Christ.- Witness him enduring the vicious maltreatment of lewd men of the baser sort and you will understand that he had fellowship in the sufferings of his Lord.- Walk with him down the last mile of his life's journey and you will be aware of his unshatterable assurance in the protection of Providence. To study his life is to throw widely open to our view the panoramic possibilities for all Christians of any age. "By the grace of God, I am what I am," he contended; and this matchless, marvelous power is as presently sufficient as it was historically experienced by the trustworthy Apostle of early times. He clearly and firmly believed that he was called of God expressly "to reveal His Son in me" (Galatians 1:16). During those three silent years in Arabia and in Damascus, subsequent to his conversion, his whole course seemed to be definitely determined and his unwavering aim was to reflect the life of Christ, Whose he was and Whom he served. The papers herein presented were written solely with the thought in mind of setting forth some-thing of an unfolding of Paul's holy desire to conscientiously exalt Christ, whether by life or by death. This dear old champion of the early Church has been an unceasing challenge. He has stirred up a desire in the hearts of countless Christians to "glory only in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ" and "to fight the good fight of faith." May the sweet inspiration of his noble life fall as a mantle upon the soldiers of the cross who, in our day and in the days to come face the same vicious foe and serve the same ever-glorious Lord.

Hanserd Knollys was an important and leading figure of the early Calvinistic Baptist movement in Great Britain in the seventeenth century. His spiritual and pastoral journey began with the Church of England, followed by a brief time in Congregationalism, and finally landing with the Particular Baptists. Knollys was an educated Baptist clergyman, having graduated from Cambridge University, who published over twenty-five works in his lifetime. Zealous for the Lord, previously published by Barry Howson and Dennis Bustin, allows the reader to get a glimpse of the man and his thought. This book, Christ Exalted, allows the reader to penetrate deeper into his thought by reading some of his more pastoral works. In addition, Knollys was taken up with the signs of the times and eschatology. Consequently, the final chapter of this book includes a chapter on his eschatological thought taken from six of his works that address this subject. This series affirms that the Bible is a Christ-centered book, containing a unified story of redemptive history of which Jesus is the hero. It's presented as sermons, divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy-reading, practical and friendly commentary. The series is projected to be 48 volumes.

Are there some things that you wished others would discuss? Many times I have gone into the bookstore and have hoped that I would find a book that dealt with some of the tough things in life. I would find a few topics in a book, but many topics were not being discussed. One day while I was at work one of my co-workers told me that she was writing a book about poems. I got so excited for her, but at the same time God began to stir up some things within me. He reminded me about the Spiritual Highlights that He had given me. The next time I saw my co-worker I told her about the Highlights and she encouraged me to get them published. "Spiritual Highlights for Our Souls" is a book written for the unsaved and saved. It is a book that does not make you feel that you are unworthy of God's love, but it makes you feel that His love is unconditional for you. The Highlights covers many topics that most people think about, but chooses not to discuss. Some of the Highlights will make you cry, some will make you laugh and all of them will inspire you to tell Satan "enough is enough". The kingdom of God and the atonement are two of the most important themes in all of Scripture. Tragically, theologians have often either set the two at odds or focused on one to the complete neglect of the other. In The Crucified King, Jeremy Treat demonstrates that Scripture presents a mutually enriching relationship between the kingdom and atonement that draws significantly from the story of Israel and culminates in the crucifixion of Christ the king. As Israel's messiah, he holds together the kingdom and the cross by bringing God's reign on earth through his atoning death. The kingdom is the ultimate goal of the cross, and the cross is the means by which the kingdom comes. Jesus' death is not the failure of his messianic ministry, nor simply the prelude to his royal glory, but is the apex of his kingdom mission. The cross is the throne from which he rules and establishes his kingdom. Using a holistic approach that brings together the insights of biblical and systematic theology, this book demonstrates not only that the kingdom and the cross are inseparable, but how they are integrated in Scripture and theology.

Bible Study Evangelista Sonja Corbitt, author of Unleashed and Fearless, struggled to understand Marian devotion as a new Catholic. But as the popular speaker and scripture teacher began to break open the Magnificat line by line, she found that Mary's song was not only something she sang but also something she became—an expression of God's loving and transforming power in the world. Combining her own story with an invitation to engage the scriptures through personal study and "God prompts," Corbitt will help readers unlock the treasures contained within Mary's song to her cousin Elizabeth, revealing a song that speaks to each of us in a unique way, calling us to delight in the power of God to transform us and make us into everything he created us to be so we can revel in the fullness and joy of life in Christ. Taking up each line of Mary's declaration to Elizabeth in Luke's Gospel, Corbitt casts new light on the inspired text, revealing how Mary rejoiced in anticipation of bearing the Messiah, glorified God for his power and mercy, foretold how God would transform the world, and praised God's faithfulness to Abraham and his children. Corbitt proclaims that we can magnify the Lord as Mary did by imitating her with growing maturity and confidence, ourselves becoming a magnificat. Popular Catholic speaker Sonja Corbitt, author of Unleashed and Fearless, struggled to understand Marian devotion as a new Catholic. But as the Bible study evangelista began to break open the Magnificat line by line, she found that the ancient canticle was not just something Mary sang, but something she became—an expression of God's loving and transforming power in the world. Integrating her own story with an invitation to engage the scriptures through personal study and "God prompts," Corbitt will help you unlock the treasures contained within Mary's song, unveiling a blueprint for the purpose-filled Christian life. The cross stirs intense feelings among Christians and non-Christians alike. Robin Jensen takes readers on an intellectual and spiritual journey through the 2,000-year evolution of the cross as idea and artifact, illuminating the controversies and forms of devotion this central symbol of Christianity inspires. Led by series editors David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this series affirms that the Bible is a Christ-centered book, containing a unified story of redemptive history of which Jesus is the hero. It's presented as sermons, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. The Glory Walk is a brief work explaining to Christians what living for God's glory is all about. It is a summons to believers to live in the bigger picture of God's kingdom with God's purposes in view. We must face the reality that western culture is man-centered, that one's natural tendencies are toward self-glory, and that the grace of God is what is deeply needed to fulfill our purposes in God's created order. Christians need to be God-centered, oriented by the truth of God's Word, focused on the gospel, and completely dependent on God. We must see clearly that our God is infinitely glorious. Thus, He is worthy to receive our worship and praise. The believer's duty is to live intentionally for God's glory alone. However, duty must not carry with it the idea of drudgery. Instead, by God's grace, we delight in him and desire his glory to be known. The teachings in The Glory Walk call believers to the joyful life of exalting Christ! This series affirms that the Bible is a Christ-centered book, containing a unified story of redemptive history of which Jesus is the hero. It's presented as sermons, divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy-reading, practical and friendly commentary. The series is projected to be 48 volumes. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this new commentary series, projected to be 48 volumes, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Did you ever wish you could change the way you 'do church'? • Welcome His presence • Grow in Christ as He has desired • Experience a God-orchestrated meeting • Become the Church, not attend the church • Grow in intercessory prayer This book provides proven tactics to move your church into A New Church realm fully committed to worship. Follow along with the author as he share their years of experience developing new ways to welcome His presence into your church, home, community, your life and the lives of those in the congregation. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this new commentary series, projected to be 48 volumes, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. What if you could heal relationships, break through strongholds, and be free of the shackles that bind you to negative experiences from your past? What if you learned to use your challenging emotions as a portal to a higher way of being? Kindred's quest shows how she transformed both traumatic crises and everyday trials into diamonds of insight, healing, and well-being—permanently. Although her experiences with death, divorce, addiction, parenting challenges, conflict-ridden relationships, and personal failures bound her to inner fear and pain, she reveals the paradigm shift that allowed her to experience divine love and release suffering and burdens. Profound reflections on the cross that help you to meditate on and marvel at the sacrificial love of Jesus. This book can be used as a devotional, especially during Lent and Easter. These profound reflections on the cross from David Mathis, author of The Christmas We Didn't Expect, will help you to meditate on and marvel at Jesus' life, sacrificial death, and spectacular resurrection-enabling you to treasure anew who Jesus is and what he has done. Many of us are so familiar with the Easter story that it becomes easy to miss subtle details and difficult to really enjoy its meaning. This book will help you to pause and marvel at Jesus, whose now-glorified wounds are a sign of his unfailing love and the decisive victory that he has won: "He was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed." (Isaiah 53:5) This book can be used as a devotional. The chapters on Holy Week make it especially helpful during the Lent season and at Easter. A few months after Crisp died in 1643 were published a small collection of his Sermons, published under the title "Christ Alone Exalted," and over the next 3 years {1643-46} where published two additional volumes, with prefaces by Mr. Robert Lancaster, Mr This book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the Lord in His word. At the same time, it provides a limited review of the Thanksgiving weekend conference held in Houston, Texas, November 28—December 1, 2019. The general subject of the conference was "Knowing and Experiencing the All-inclusive, Extensive Christ." Through intimate contact with the Lord in His word, the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the Body of Christ.
