Un mattino cupo e nebbioso dell'ottobre del 1529: le campane della chiesa di san Marco a Firenze suonano a morto per Baccio dei Lapi, vittima dell'artiglieria dei Lanzichenecchi al servizio della famiglia de' Medici, intenzionata a mettere in ginocchio i fiorentini e a reimpossessarsi della città. Ma i due strani figurini che servono la funzione hanno ben poco dei frati: stanchi della pace del convento, infatti, Fra' Tito da Lodi e Fra' Maurizius si accingono a saziare la propria sete di guerra, e a svelare a spie e traditori la loro vera natura. Pubblicato a puntate sul "Corriere dei Piccoli" tra il 1965 e il 1968, Fanfulla racconta le gesta di un mercenario nel turbolento periodo della dominazione franco-spagnola e delle città-Stato in Italia: uno scorcio del Cinquecento nostrano negli occhi di un soldato di fortuna, a firma di due fra i più grandi maestri del fumetto made in Italy. "Il lavoro di Pratt, presentato in questo libro con la doppia striscia a piena pagina, assume una valenza del tutto nuova rispetto alle vecchie edizioni, tutte pubblicate con vignette rimpicciolite. Qui si può ammirare al meglio la rottura della striscia con numerose vignette allargate e asimmetriche di grande impatto visivo, rafforzate da un sapiente aumento del carico dei neri. La narrazione per immagini acquista così vigore e dinamicità, tanto da renderla attualissima ancora oggi." Dalla prefazione di Antonio Carboni Ebook ottimizzato per Tablet, Mac e PC
