"Synopsis The Rough Guide to Trinidad and Tobago is the most extensive guidebook available to these unspoiled islands, full of opinionated accounts of the region's fascinating history and unique national character. The guide includes impeccably detailed coverage of the best places to visit, as well as the best bars, restaurants and accommodation on both islands. From bustling Port of Spain to the most remote corner of Tobago, this is the only guide to the islands you will need. This new edition includes a full-colour introduction with stunning photography of the islands' top attractions, hand-picked by the authors. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Dominique De-Light lived in Trinidad for three years. She is a freelance writer and has work published in "Caribbean Beat" and "Firsthand: An Anthology of New Writing", and has contributed to several Rough Guides. Polly Thomas first visited the Caribbean as a teenager. As well as co-authoring this book, she is the author of the Rough Guide to Jamaica."
